

BEAULIEU ROAD PONY SALE
THURSDAY 15TH SEPTEMBER 2011

239 Forward

A very similar number forward to the same sale last year and as expected very little demand, particularly for the foals with nearly 40 failing to meet the minimum bid of 10 guineas and a similar number being sold on the minimum. Overall more than a third of the entry remained unsold at the end of the day probably the highest proportion ever.

One or two bright spots during the day with the well bred bay filly foal 'Ashley Solitaire' from Owen and Val Dibdin topping the Section 1 foals at 150 gns and in section 4 Dave Plascott's PB Arab yearling Palomino colt achieving 675 gns. A Palomino Shetland filly foal from Michael Maton created a lot of interest to reach 190 gns whilst the Donkeys sold well on the trade to reach 260 gns for a Jenny foal from Mrs J Coutts.

Hopefully the low prices, you could buy 60 foals for the price of one yearling Bullock!, will tempt one or two extra buyers out in October to turn them away as a cheap investment.
