

BEAULIEU ROAD PONY SALE
THURSDAY 19th SEPTEMBER 2013

151 Forward Auctioneer Iain Soutar

Only a few more forward than last year, despite no sale in August and this mainly down to the lack of foals, which are still not wanted. A fairly depressing trade with just a few highlights, top price of 750 gns went to the striking 3 y.o. black New Forest gelding 'White Ladies Carter' from Kate Adams, Worcester and she also reached 660 gns with a part bred 4 y.o. gelding. Top price New Forest foal was Didie Van Hennik's bay colt at 160 gns, miles in front of the rest with many unable to reach the 10 gn minimum. In the Shetland section a spotted filly foal from Fred Winter raced to 180 gns, enough to make him choke on his snuff, whilst great grandson Jacob's chestnut filly reached 145gns. With the grand new roof due to open next month we will need a better trade to be able to keep the lights on!
